Headquarters for Christmas shoppers

THE tide of Christmas shopping has set towards Simpson Crawford's and every day from now on will swell the ranks of buyers and multiply sales. There's a Christmas aspect throughout the entire store. Never have we made such splendid preparations—never has any store realized so nearly the ideal in everything that makes a store attractive.

The largest assortments—the best selected goods—the finest displays—the lowest prices for right qualities—all these are realized at Simpson Crawford's. We want you to come here as often as you can, whether you care to buy or not, and to out of town people we extend a cordial invitation to make this store headquarters. There are many points of interest. Be sure to see-The Japanese tea house The old Dutch room And the decorated booths Used for handkerchief display. In the book section. In all parts of the store.

Remarkable values in jewelry.

THOSE inexpensive, yet handsome little useful articles that are always appreciated. Our showing equals that of three or four ordinary jewelry houses. Then, too, we caught the knack of getting the prices down to the lowest notch-without sacrificing quality.

We hold, however, that it's not so much the low prices that give us such a great trade as the character of the jewelry. The exclusiveness and the fact that every article equals those of the exclusive dealers, who must ask twice our prices. Come and see our magnificent showing-it will prove a revelation
